

MONTHLY BIBLE STUDY

CMA CHAPTER BIBLE STUDY PURPOSE STATEMENT

These studies are provided as an optional tool for use by chapter chaplains, Bible study leaders, and/or individuals for personal study. Please note that although these studies are written specifically for CMA members, the principles can be applied in any area of life.

CMA Bible Studies are intended to:

1. Help believers grow. (Discipleship)
2. Enable our members to minister more effectively.
3. Give insight into the Word of God.
4. Explore a Biblical topic, share principles for Christian living, and/or provide a character study.
5. Share the Gospel of Jesus, enable unsaved study participants to receive the gift of salvation, and/or learn how to lead someone else to salvation.

CMA Bible studies are intended to be discussion starters. They give the Chaplain or Bible study leader a tool to facilitate spiritual discussion and interaction, which in turn allows believers to grow together in their love for Jesus and one another. You are free to adjust this study to fit the time you have available and/or the makeup of your group.

As you begin each study, please pray and ask God:

- For His Spirit to guide your discussion.
- For divine revelation of His word to you.
- To draw you closer to Him and one another.
- To inspire you to serve Him more fervently and courageously in ministry to bikers and others.

Thank you for all you do.
