

The Christian Motorcyclists Association Website Privacy Policy

The Christian Motorcyclists Association (CMA) is committed to maintaining the accuracy, confidentiality and security of your personal information.

We value your trust, and want you to understand what information we collect, how we protect it, and how it is used. Personal information—nonpublic information that identifies you—is essential to CMA in meeting our goal to provide you with services, related products and ministry tools. Your information will be treated with respect and in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

SECTION 1 – What is Personal Information?

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, personal information is information about you, individually, such as name, address, telephone number, email address, member number and your role(s) held in CMA. As part of your ministry activities, event attendance, goodies purchasing, donations, etc., we collect the personal information you give us. This enables us to both fulfill and support those activities.

When you browse our site, we also automatically receive your computer's internet protocol (IP) address in order to provide us with information that helps us learn about your browser and operating system so we can better improve the experience for all our users.

Email marketing: With your permission, we may send you emails about new products, devotionals, event registration receipts, and tax receipts.

SECTION 2 – What Personal Information Do we Collect?

You can visit our website without telling us who you are or revealing personal information about yourself, including your e-mail address. Our web server may collect anonymous information related to your visit to our website, such as IP address and domain used to access our website browser type, the website you came from to access our website, the page you entered and exited at any website page within our website that is viewed by that IP address and the country where you are located. We use this information to monitor our website's performance (such as number of visits, average time spent, page views, etc.) and for our operational purposes, such as working to continually upgrade our website. You can also register onto the CMA website by using your email address and setting up a password so that you can view and/or update your personal information. You can provide us with personal information to complete a transaction, verify your credit card, place an order, arrange for a delivery or return a purchase, If you request additional materials (i.e. daily devotional emails, newsletter subscription and announcements), we will ask you directly for your expressed consent and provide you with an opportunity to withdraw your consent.

You may withdraw your consent at any time by clicking on an “unsubscribe” link which is offered at the bottom of every email and completing the action on our web site.

You may also withdraw your consent anytime, by 1.) contacting us through the “Contact Us” form on our web site at <http://www.cmausa.net> or 2.) by mailing us at: The Christian Motorcyclists Association, P.O. Box 9, Hatfield, AR 71945.

We are concerned about the privacy of young children, and we do not collect any more personal information than is reasonably necessary to enable them to participate in the activities we offer on our sites. Only adults may sign up children for on-line event registration. We encourage you to become involved with your child’s access to the Internet and to our site in order to ensure that his or her privacy is well protected.

SECTION 3 – DISCLOSURE

We may disclose your personal information if we are required by law to do so or if you violate our Terms of Service.

IMPORTANT: We do not sell, rent or otherwise disclose your personal information to any third parties, including but not limited to advertisers, strategic partners or vendors. Again, we take your privacy very seriously.

SECTION 4 – DATA PROCESSING & STORAGE

Protecting your data is of utmost importance to us. CMA employs and maintains physical, electronic, contractual, procedural and managerial safeguards to protect the confidentiality, integrity, security, and privacy of your personal information.

We use Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology to protect your information as it is transmitted to us. We also employ user authentication procedures and other security technologies designed to keep your data secure and protected. Access to your personal information is limited to authorized CMA personnel who require access to perform their job functions, and to authorized third parties that are contractually required to keep your information confidential and secure. Please note, however, that no data transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect the information we maintain, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information that you transmit to us.

Payment:

A direct payment gateway is used to complete your purchase, and process your credit card data.

The payment gateway adheres to the standards set by PCI-DSS as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover.

PCI-DSS requirements help ensure the secure handling of credit card information by our store and its service providers.

NOTE: At no point during the transaction does the Christian Motorcyclists Association take custody of or store your credit card information. This process is monitored and managed by Century Business Solutions, and you can read their terms of service, privacy policy and PCI Compliance information by visiting their site at: <https://www.centurybizsolutions.net/>.

SECTION 5 – THIRD-PARTY SERVICES

In general, the third-party providers used by us will only collect, use, and disclose your information to the extent necessary to allow them to perform the services they provide to us.

However, certain third-party service providers, such as payment gateways and other payment transaction processors, have their own privacy policies in respect to the information we are required to provide to them for your purchase-related transactions.

For these providers, we recommend that you read their privacy policies so you can understand the manner in which your personal information will be handled by these providers.

In particular, remember that certain providers may be located in or have facilities that are located a different jurisdiction than either you or us. So if you elect to proceed with a transaction that involves the services of a third-party service provider, then your information may become subject to the laws of the jurisdiction(s) in which that service provider or its facilities are located.

As an example, if you are located in Canada and your transaction is processed by a payment gateway located in the United States, then your personal information used in completing that transaction may be subject to disclosure under United States legislation, including the Patriot Act.

Once you leave our store's website or are redirected to a third-party website or application, you are no longer governed by this Privacy Policy or our website's Terms of Service.

Links: When you click on links on our store or site, they may direct you away from our site. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of other sites and encourage you to read their privacy statements.

SECTION 6 – SECURITY

To protect your personal information, we take reasonable precautions and follow industry best practices to make sure it is not inappropriately lost, misused, accessed, disclosed, altered or destroyed.

If you provide us with your credit card information, the information is encrypted using secure socket layer technology (SSL). Although no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is 100% secure, we follow all PCI-DSS requirements and implement additional generally accepted industry standards.

SECTION 7 – AGE OF CONSENT

By using this site, you represent that you are at least the age of majority in your state or province of residence, or that you are the age of majority in your state or province of residence and you have given us your consent to allow any of your minor dependents to use this site.

SECTION 8 – CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

CMA, from time to time, may make changes to this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in its legal or regulatory obligations or in the manner in which we deal with your personal information.

Changes and clarifications will take effect immediately upon their posting on the website.
